

Fondaction is accepting lump-sum contributions once again as of June 1st

Press release

MONTRÉAL, June 1, 2022, 12:01 a.m. – Starting today, the lump-sum contribution method is once again available at Fondaction; however, we continue to encourage contributions by pre-authorized debit or payroll deduction, which are always available.

On December 20, 2021, Fondaction announced that it was ceasing to accept lump-sum contributions until the end of the fiscal year ending on May 31, 2022.

There are ongoing fees and expenses associated with owning investment fund securities. Fondaction's shares are not guaranteed. The value and performance of this investment fluctuate; past performance is not an indicator of future results. Before investing, please consult the prospectus at fondaction.com/prospectus.

About Fondaction

A forerunner for the past 25 years, Fondaction is the investment fund for those who are mobilizing for the positive transformation of Quebec's economy, making it more productive, equitable, inclusive and green. As a labour-sponsored fund, Fondaction represents tens of thousands of savers and hundreds of companies committed to driving Quebec's progress. It manages net assets of more than 3.34 billion dollars invested in hundreds of businesses and on the financial markets, favouring investments that generate positive economic, social and environmental spinoffs in addition to financial return. Fondaction helps create and maintain jobs and reduce inequalities while contributing to the fight against climate change.
